Diamonds

Abandon the idea before you are "stung" of ever getting a fine diamond at a bargain price.

The highway of commerce is strewn with sad memories of those who thought they could get something for nothing. only to find they had acquired nothing for something.

Buy boots of a bootmaker, hats of a hatmaker, meat of butcher and diamonds of a diamond dealer and all will be well.

A Levson diamond is just what you expect it to beexquisite in character and always worth the price asked.
